26 August 2014, Chicago – Consul General Generoso D.G. Calonge called on Ms. Denise Duclon, Regional Director of the US Department of State’s Office of Foreign Missions at her downtown Chicago office earlier today.

Ms. Duclon has been with OFM-Chicago Office for twenty years, overseeing the State Department’s relations with the various Consulates in the Chicago area. According to her, Chicago in recent years has been the fastest-growing area in the US in terms of the number of Consulates establishing offices.

Consul General Calonge arrived in Chicago on 08 July 2014 from Tel Aviv, where he served as the Philippine Ambassador to Israel for three years. END.
