PHILIPPINE CONSUL GENERAL WELCOMES FIL-AM BUSINESS DELEGATES TO CHICAGO

Consul General Gina Jamoralin delivers the welcome remarks at the FPACC Bi-National Conference held in Chicago on 9 November 2019. (Chicago PCG)

Chicago, 18 November 2019 – Consul General Gina A. Jamoralin delivered the welcome remarks at the Federation of Philippine American Chambers of Commerce (FPACC) Bi-National Conference held at Hyatt Regency O'Hare on Saturday, 9 November 2019.

Dr. Jamoralin touted the Philippines' rapid and sustainable economic growth and massive Build, Build, Build infrastructure program, and discussed in detail the trade profile of the Philippines and the U.S. Midwest. She also urged the participants to visit the Philippines and seriously consider it as a trade partner and investment destination.

Led by FPACC President Marie Cunning, officers and members of Philippine American chambers based in Greater Chicago, Washington, D.C., Greater Houston, Arizona, Pacific Northwest (Seattle), Las Vegas, San Diego, Silicon Valley, South Bay Los Angeles area, Oregon, Central Florida, and other chambers were in town to hold the federation's annual conference. Also present during the conference were Subic Bay Metropolitan Authority Chair and CEO Wilma Eisma, New York-based Special Trade Representative Nicanor Bautista, and executives of various companies. END

Consul General Jamoralin (middle) pose with FPACC President Marie Cunning (left) and FPACC Vice President Emil Bernardo (right).

Consul General Jamoralin (middle) poses with FPACC President Marie Cunning (left) and FPACC Legal Advisor Aurora Austriaco (right).

Cynthia Flores (L), George ChunKau Mui (2nd,L) Consul General Jamoralin (3rd, L) FPACC President Marie Cunning (3rd, R), US Dept. of Commerce National Director Henry Childs II (2nd, R) and FPACC Legal Advisor Aurora Austriaco

Consul General Jamoralin (left) with Special Trade Representative Nicanor Bautista (right), head of the Philippine Investment and Trade Center in New York.