These projects included the 1st and 2nd Paskuhan sa Chicago in 2018 and 2019, respectively and the Philippine Consulate's regular Saturday consular outreach in Seafood City last year and this year. She also thanked the group's president, Ms. Malou Tabo and her officers for their active leadership of the group whose Sunday dance gatherings at Seafood City provide a reason for Fil-Ams of all ages to gather in an atmosphere of friendship, fun and shared passion for dancing.

Consul General Jamoralin acknowledged that she has great appreciation for dancing as an art and a sport, which is good for everyone regardless of age. She encouraged the organization to continue its mission of bringing together Filipino-Americans who shared a common love for the art. All the guests wearing festive, glittering and colorful dresses were not shy in exhibiting their dancing prowess on the dance floor.
