Chicago, 14 May 2018 – Philippine Consul General to Chicago and the Midwest Gina A. Jamoralin welcomed Illinois State Representative Juliana Stratton for a breakfast meeting at the Kalayaan Hall of the Consulate General.

The warm and cordial meeting arranged over a traditional Filipino breakfast was part of the newly arrived Consul General's effort to get to know and build rapport with state and local officials to promote possible collaboration on areas of mutual interest and concern.

Rep. Stratton, who stands for the 5th District that covers the South Loop location of the Philippine Consulate General, and Consul General Jamoralin exchanged views on various issues affecting their common constituents, such as voters' education and cultural exchange. END
