PH CONSUL GENERAL ATTENDS NOODLE FEST IN WISCONSIN

The Consulate General of the Philippines would like to inform the Filipino-American community that it supported the 2018 Philippine Independence Day celebration of the Philippine Cultural and Civic Center Foundation (PCCCF) held at the Philippine Center on Saturday, 16 June 2018 in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Consul General Jamoralin also delivered an inspirational message encouraging the FilCom leaders to take care of the FilAm youth and have them to be the next leaders of the community and ensure that they are engage in various FilCom activities to help them understand better the Filipino culture and heritage.

The day long activity, which was attended by nearly 150 people, was attended with the diverse communities in Wisconsin. The highlight of the day is the one-of-a-kind noodle tasting competition that objectively enables the best version of noodles or pansit to be selected by impartial judging and attendee's popular vote.
