Consul General Jamoralin delivered a message acknowledging the Felix Y. Manalo Foundation for showing the world Filipinos' generous and humane spirit in helping the less fortunate, and that the community in Rockford, Illinois is fortunate to be one of the Foundation's beneficiaries.

The highlight of the event was the awarding and recognition of 10 local organizations which received monetary donations and 1,000 free back-to-school bags filled with school supplies and winter clothes for Rockford-based families.

Rockford is the 9th and final stop in the Aid of Humanity U.S tour of the FYM Foundation this August, as part of its global aim to provide opportunity for those most in need and contribute to supporting peaceful and productive communities.

Felix Y. Manalo Foundation (FYM), Inc. is a socio-civic platform of the Iglesia Ni Cristo. The Aid of Humanity event series earlier this year toured Canada, assisting 36 local organizations. Other current projects include eco-farming in Africa, distribution of basic supplies to residents of favelas in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil and relief aid during the hurricanes and earthquakes in the Philippines and other disaster-stricken areas. END
